

Stuff you must know for observations

- Identify two general strengths and two weaknesses of observations
- Describe what is meant by participant observation
- Identify a strength and weakness of participant observation
- Describe what is meant by structured observation
- Identify a strength and weakness of structured observation
- Describe what is meant by time sampling
- Identify a strength and weakness of time sampling
- Describe what is meant by time sampling
- Identify a strength and weakness of time sampling
- Know what is meant by reliability
- Know how to test an observation for reliability
- Know how to improve the reliability of a self report
- Know what is meant by validity
- Know how to improve the validity of an observation
- Describe what is meant by quantitative data
- Outline one strength and one weakness of collecting quantitative data using observational studies
- Describe what is meant by qualitative data
- Outline one strength and one weakness of collecting qualitative data using observational studies
- Describe three ethical issues relating to self report techniques